

Welcome to Week 1 of Bible 180!

I am thrilled that you are here, reading with us, and I am here to help you achieve this incredible goal of reading the entire Bible, cover to cover. You CAN do this, and I will be right here with you, every single page of the way!

This week, we will jump right in and get a big chunk of Genesis read. Genesis opens with Creation, and then moves on to a LOT MORE, and it does so very quickly. It can be overwhelming. But I've got you...

TIPS FOR DOING THIS WELL:

- Sign up for daily reminder emails from me, and then open them each day before you read.
- Start strong and read every day. Do not get behind.
- Right now, read for context. Don't worry about remembering everything or memorizing anything. Just read.
- Make notes of things to revisit later, if you must.

Reflection Questions

- Why have you decided to read the entire Bible?
- What do you hope to get out of it?
- How will you hold yourself accountable to stay on track?
- Do you have any friends, family, or an accountability partner doing this with you?
- What are you cutting out of your daily life to make time for this?
